2013/03/14

DEAR,

I greet you all from all Bethlehem which is nestled beautiful among the rivers, the valley and the Maluti Mountain which made to believe that I am a Bethlehemite.

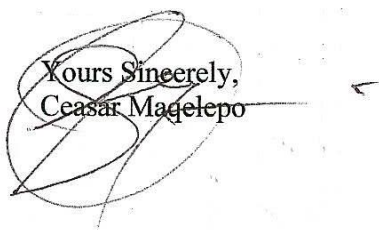

To Maluti Antique Motor and Machine I pay you a global salute in the manner in which everything was organized. It shows that it was concerted effort, a teamwork and driven with passion and desire to make it success.

I have no doubt in my mind that was indeed a roaring success and to the club. I say "well done" than well said. Words alone are not sufficient to describe our heartfelt appreciation for the work done.

The human element (Humanity /Ubuntu/ Botho) was the key to the success of Maluti Motor show, as it depend on people putting that plan into action. The brimming faces with smiles and appreciation make everyone to be at home. And that is not a simple an affirmation of what you are able to do but it is the truth. It is a journey of a personal growth that says in the words of Mahatma Gandhi "Be the change you want to see in the world".

To all the organizers, participants from all corners of SA and abroad. I doff my hat off. As the old adage says, "This is a small step but a giant leap to mankind". In conclusion the show was exhilarating, breathtaking, exciting and enriching. It was marvellous and will continue to be the apple of Bethlehem's eye even after the last car has left.

Yours Sincerely,
Ceasar Maqelepo
